Match background

Leipzig are in buoyant mood and will be looking to cement their place as the early leaders in Group G as they welcome Lyon in the second round of matches.

- The German club kicked off their second UEFA Champions League campaign with an impressive 2-1 win at two-time European champions Benfica, and now face a Lyon side who were held 1-1 at home by Zenit on matchday one.
- This is the teams' first meeting and only Leipzig's fifth game against a French club – Lyon, in contrast, are in the same UEFA Champions League section as a German club for the second year in a row.

Form guide

Leipzig

- Timo Werner's double gave Leipzig three points at Benfica on matchday one – their third UEFA Champions League victory in their seventh match in the competition.
- Third in the Bundesliga last season and German Cup finalists, this is Leipzig's third European campaign, and only their 26th match. They became the first team to make their European debut in the UEFA Champions League group stage in 2017/18, when they picked up seven points to finish third in a section including Beşiktaş, Porto and Monaco. They went on to reach the UEFA Europa League quarter-finals before losing to Marseille.
- Leipzig's first European home game was a 1-1 draw against another French side, Monaco, on matchday one two years ago; also at home in that season's group stage, they beat Porto 3-2 but lost 2-1 to Beşiktaş.
- In 2018/19 the German club came through three qualifying rounds to reach the UEFA Europa League group stage, but finished behind Salzburg and Celtic to drop out of the competition, collecting seven points from their three games.
- Leipzig have won seven of their 12 home European matches (D2 L3).
- One of those seven home victories came against another French club, Werner scoring the only goal in the first leg of the 2017/18 UEFA Europa League quarter-final with Marseille; Leipzig bowed out after losing 5-2 away in the return.

Lyon

- A Memphis Depay penalty six minutes into the second half earned Lyon a share of the points against Zenit on matchday one, extending the French club's run of draws at home in the UEFA Champions League to five in a row.
- Third in Ligue 1 last season, this is Lyon's 16th UEFA Champions League group campaign – four more than any other French club – and fourth in five seasons.
- Les Gones won their first game in last season's UEFA Champions League, 2-1 at Manchester City, before drawing the next five and qualifying for the round of 16 with a 1-1 draw at Shakhtar Donetsk on matchday six. A 5-1 second-leg loss at Barcelona in the 2018/19 last 16 means they have lost just two of their last 13 European matches (W4 D7).
- The French club have lost only two of their last nine European away fixtures (W4 D3), the reverse at Barcelona ending a five-match unbeaten away run in the UEFA Champions League (W2 D3). They picked up five points away from home in the 2018/19 group stage.
- Lyon drew 3-3 away to Leipzig's Bundesliga rivals Hoffenheim last season, before a 2-2 home draw. Hoffenheim were led by current Leipzig boss Julian Nagelsmann.
- OL are without a win in their last four visits to Germany (D2 L2), where their record overall is W4 D3 L7. They have lost four of their last eight matches with Bundesliga clubs, home and away (W1 D3).
- Lyon were UEFA Champions League semi-finalists in 2010.

Head coach

Julian Nagelsmann

Date of birth: 23 July 1987

Nationality: German

Playing career: 1860 München II, Augsburg II

Coaching career: Augsburg (youth), 1860 München (youth), Hoffenheim (youth), Hoffenheim, RB Leipzig

- Nagelsmann's playing career began at Issing before a move to Augsburg's youth academy. From 2002 he represented 1860 München for five seasons, starting off in the youth side before being promoted to the second team.
- Injury prevented him from making a single appearance in 2006/07, so he returned to Augsburg, where he picked up a serious knee injury and was forced to retire in 2007 aged just 20 having never played a competitive first-team game.
- Nagelsmann, who has a degree in sports and applied coaching, swiftly took up a post in Augsburg's youth coaching set-up under Thomas Tuchel before two years in charge of 1860's Under-17 side.
- His association with Hoffenheim began in 2010 and he led the club's Under-19s to the league title in 2013/14, his first season. Succeeded Huub Stevens as first-team coach in February 2016, aged just 28 – the youngest coach in Bundesliga history – and guided the club away from the Bundesliga relegation zone by the end of that campaign.
- Took Hoffenheim to a fourth-placed finish in 2016/17 although their subsequent UEFA Champions League adventure lasted only one tie, Liverpool eliminating them in the play-offs. Another strong Bundesliga season was rewarded with third place and on 21 June 2018 it was announced that Nagelsmann would leave Hoffenheim at the end of 2018/19 to take over as coach of RB Leipzig; before departing he oversaw Hoffenheim's debut UEFA Champions League group campaign and a ninth-placed Bundesliga finish.

Sylvinho

Date of birth: 12 April 1974

Nationality: Brazilian

Playing career: Corinthians, Arsenal, Celta Vigo, Barcelona, Manchester City

Coaching career: Cruzeiro (assistant), Sport Recife (assistant), Nautico (assistant), Corinthians (assistant), Internazionale Milano (assistant), Brazil (assistant), Brazil Olympic team, Lyon

- A versatile defender who usually played at left-back, Sylvinho helped first club Corinthians to league titles in 1998 and 1999 as well as the 1995 Brazilian Cup. With plenty of interest from Europe, Sylvinho opted for England and Arsenal, enjoying two successful campaigns before moving on to Celta Vigo in 2001/02 and helping them qualify for the UEFA Champions League for the first time in August 2003 after finishing fourth in the Liga.
- That European adventure ended with a defeat by Arsenal in the last 16, and more disappointment followed as Celta were relegated. Sylvinho remained in the top flight, however, after joining Barcelona, but he was never a regular starter in 2004/05 as his new club won the Spanish title.
- The Brazilian international, who won six caps, featured more frequently the following season as the Catalan giants retained the championship, but made just one substitute appearance in the victorious UEFA Champions League campaign that culminated in a final defeat of Arsenal. Part of Barça's treble-winning team in 2008/09, he made 15 league appearances and played 90 minutes against Manchester United in the UEFA Champions League final in addition to a late cameo in the Copa del Rey final defeat of Athletic Club.
- Hung up his boots in 2010 after another season in England with Manchester City, moving into coaching back in his native Brazil where he worked as an assistant at Cruzeiro, Sport Recife, Náutico and Corinthians. Returned to Europe at Internazionale in December 2014, working as Roberto Mancini's assistant for 18 months.
- Joined the staff of the Brazil national team in 2016, and took charge of the Olympic team in April 2019; just a month later, however, was unveiled as the new head coach of Lyon, working under sporting director and club legend Juninho Pernambucano.
