Match background

It is the end of the European road in 2021/22 for both Omonoia and Kairat Almaty as the respective champions of Cyprus and Kazakhstan meet in Nicosia with only third place in Group H up for grabs.

- The elimination of both clubs was already sealed after Matchday 4, but they both gave a decent account of themselves last time out, Kairat losing 2-3 at home to Basel after twice being ahead and Omonoia's 36-year-old Spaniard Jordi Gómez scoring from the halfway line for the second time in Europe to salvage a 2-2 draw away to Qarabağ in the 90th minute.
- With Omonoia on three points and Kairat on one, the visitors must win in Nicosia to unseat their hosts from third place.

Previous meetings

- Kairat's first UEFA encounter with Cypriot opponents, against Omonoia in Almaty on Matchday 1, resulted in a 0-0 draw. That remains the only point gained by Kurban Berdyev's side in Group H.
- Omonoia's one previous pairing with a team from Kazakhstan was a 2003/04 UEFA Champions League first qualifying round tie with Irtysh Pavlodar that they won thanks to a 2-1 away win following a goalless first leg in Nicosia.

Form guide

Omonoia

- Omonoia are the reigning champions of Cyprus, winning their 21st league title last term, when they also returned to Europe after a three-season absence and competed in a group stage for the first time, finishing bottom of their UEFA Europa League section behind PSV Eindhoven, Granada and PAOK with four points.
- Henning Berg's side lost their opening European tie this season, against Dinamo Zagreb in the second qualifying round of the UEFA Champions League (0-2 a, 0-1 h), then experienced contrasting penalty shoot-out fortunes in successive UEFA Europa League qualifiers. They beat Flora Tallinn on spot kicks (1-0 h, 1-2 a) but lost by the same method in their play-off against Antwerp (4-2 h, 0-2 a), which meant a further transfer to the UEFA Europa Conference League group stage.
- Omonoia were on a seven-match undefeated run in European home matches (W4 D3) until they were beaten 2-1 by PSV on Matchday 2 last season. They have now lost four of the last eight (W3 D1), going down 1-4 to Qarabağ on Matchday 2 before drawing 1-1 against Basel on Matchday 4.

Kairat

- Champions of Kazakhstan in 2020 for the first time in 16 years, Kairat are appearing in UEFA competition for the eighth successive season. However, this is the club's first appearance in a group stage, their last six campaigns having all ended in the UEFA Europa League qualifying phase.
- Conquerors of Maccabi Haifa – the team that ended their European hopes last season – in the UEFA Champions League first qualifying round (1-1 a, 2-0 h), Kairat then lost to Crvena zvezda (2-1 h, 0-5 a), meaning a switch to the UEFA Europa League, where they fell in extra time to Armenian champions Alashkert (0-0 h, 2-3 a). However, a comprehensive UEFA Europa Conference League play-off win over Fola Esch (4-1 a, 3-1 h) booked their place in the competition's group stage.
- Kairat's victory in Luxembourg ended the club's five-match winless away sequence in UEFA competition (D1 L4). The subsequent group stage defeats in Basel (2-4) and Baku (1-2) make their all-time European away record W6 D3 L16.

Links and trivia

- Kairat's Spanish forward José Kanté played in Cyprus with AEK Larnaca (2014–16), scoring five goals including one against Omonoia in a 1-1 draw on 25 April 2015.
- Last season Kanté faced Omonoia again in UEFA Champions League qualifying with Legia Warszawa, coming on as a 61st-minute substitute as his side exited the competition with a 0-2 extra-time defeat in the Polish capital.
- Kairat's Belarus international Denis Polyakov spent the second half of 2017/18 with Omonoia's local rivals APOEL, his club winning both derbies in the play-off round (2-0 a, 4-1 h) en route to their Cypriot title triumph.
- Kairat are one of eight clubs in the competition making their debut appearance in a UEFA group stage this season; the others – one in each group – are Alashkert (Group A), Flora Tallinn (B), Bodø/Glimt (C), Randers (D), Union Berlin (E), Lincoln Red Imps (F) and Mura (G).
- Kairat failed to defend their domestic league title in 2021, finishing third in Kazakhstan's Premier League ten points behind champions Tobol.
